

Women Artists at the AAH conference 2018

WSG member Helen Draper, with Dr Carol Jacobi of Tate, will be co-convening the session 'In/visibility and influence: the impact of women artists and their work' at the Association for Art History Annual Conference 2018.

The session's themes are biography and reputation, legacy and longevity, and the artists include Artemisia Gentileschi, Elisabetta Sirani, Angelica Kauffmann, Elizabeth Eleanor Siddal, Elizabeth Butler, Ethel Walker, Louise Joplin, Isabel Rawsthorne, Frances Hodgkins (below), Vanessa Bell, Eva Hesse, Lee Lozano, Anne Truitt, Anne Schille, Pauline Boty, Kristin Jones, Paula Rego and Adriana Varejão, and Judy Chicago (filmed in conversation).

In/visibility & influence:
the impact of women
artists & their work

5 April
AAH 2018 Conference
Courtauld Institute of Art
London, 5-7 April register for tickets at <https://www.forarthistory.org.uk>

AAH 2018 takes places 5-7 April 2018 at the Courtauld Institute and King's College London. For further information, including registration, please see the AAH website.